National Community Benefit explains Medical Financial Assistance (MFA) as a program for members of Kaiser Permanente (KP). KP provides financial assistance to members who may be facing hardships that make it difficult to afford medical care. The assistance includes help with health care costs, such as premiums, deductibles, and copayments. It also includes help with access to care, transportation, and medications.

Support for Kaiser Permanente Members:
- Kaiser Permanente members who are experiencing financial hardship can apply for Medical Financial Assistance (MFA) to help cover costs such as premiums, deductibles, and copayments.
- Members can request assistance with transportation to medical appointments and help with medications.

Medical Financial Assistance (MFA):

- Eligibility: Members who are experiencing financial hardship and are enrolled in Kaiser Permanente medical plans are eligible for MFA.
- Application Process: Members can apply for MFA through their Kaiser Permanente account or by contacting their member service representative.

KP provides a range of benefits to members, including financial assistance, support for access to care, and access to medical transportation. Kaiser Permanente (KP) is a not-for-profit, integrated health care organization that provides medical care to members in California, Colorado, Hawaii, Nevada, and Washington. KP is owned by its members, who elect a board of directors to represent their interests.

Kaiser Permanente (KP) is a non-profit integrated health care organization that provides medical care to members in California, Colorado, Hawaii, Nevada, and Washington. KP is owned by its members, who elect a board of directors to represent their interests.
